Fr. John's Digital Quill for Spiritual Musings and Parish News

How Did That Happen?

Over the past week, I have heard this question from many people. This question was mostly asked because of the great generosity that many people gifted to the parish on the first Sunday of August. A flurry of similarly worded questions began again after seeing the church fuller than normal for a 10:00am Mass last weekend. "How did that happen?" people asked me.

The other question people asked me was how do we keep this trend going. Being able to meet our budget regularly on a weekly basis is a sign of a vibrant parish. Further the energy and enthusiasm of a full church is something special that makes Sunday Mass attractive to others and to us to attend.

The first question speaks to an attitude that needs to be challenged. In my first column, I referenced the phrase #SRAstrong. This phrase not only speaks to a future that we are building together but it also speaks to the reality we experience in the here and now. When we see some negative trends, they can cause us to forget who we are and the great things that are happening.

I know that we have a great parish. The energy, enthusiasm, and willingness to do and sacrifice for the community makes this a place people want to be part of. Certainly, we have our share of challenges. But those challenges can never shake us from the reality of who we are and the work of the Holy Spirit happening around us.

With a knowledge of who we are and confidence in the Holy Spirit's direction, how do we keep this going? We all need to keep doing our part.

We all desire a full church...so help fill the pews by making the time this Sunday and every Sunday to make Mass a priority.

We all desire a church that can fulfill its obligations...so help us to do that by making a sacrificial gift to the parish.

We all desire a vibrant parish that is full of life and that people ask us how do they get involved in...so let us speak about the good things happening and encourage people to look at us again. So may these two weeks inspire us afresh with confidence in our parish. We are #SRAstrong: not just in words but in reality as well.

New Pews

We have heard several comments that the newest batch of pews were not completed in the same manner as the previous pews. We are in contact with the company and this will be addressed as soon as they can come back to the St. Louis area, as the company is located in Wisconsin. Also, there have been some comments about the new kneelers being sharp or splintering. This is largely due to the material used in constructing them. Since it is the material, there is little that sanding or other fixes could do to permanently solve this issue. Please consider setting them down with your hand versus flipping down with your foot.

Bible Study

An organizational meeting for a Bible Study will take place this Tuesday at 1:30pm in the Parish Office. Hope to see you there!

Class on Prayer

Remember that the first class on prayer will take place this Wednesday at 7:00pm. If you have not signed up yet, the list is still available at the Highfield entrance or you can e-mail or call me to sign up as well. Looking forward to a great month of learning about prayer!

Return to School

It was a joy to greet our students on a wet Wednesday morning as we began a new school year. The enthusiasm and smiles from the students was great to see!

On Thursday, we had an event to greet our preschoolers and they will be having their first day of school on Monday. As we open the school year, we have 149 students in our grade school K-8 and 51 preschoolers. With these numbers we remain optimistic about our future!

I am also happy to announce that the supplies to install the LED lighting in the school have arrived. We will be working with the contractor to get the lights installed as quickly as possible with as minimum of disruption to routine.

Also, our camera system will be up and running soon to provide monitoring in and around our school. Our school remains committed to excellence and to providing the safest environment possible for our students.

Preschool of Religion

As was announced last weekend, the preschool of religion program will be returning to SRA! This will be at the 10:00am Mass beginning the Sunday after Labor Day, September 9. Children ages 3 to 1st grade are invited to participate. We will call them up for a blessing after the opening prayer of Mass and they will come back before communion.

We are in need of parents to help to supervise and mentor or teens from 8th grade to high school. We are also in need of teens who will prepare and teach the lessons to the children. Please contact the parish office or me if you are interested in helping with this important ministry of bringing children closer to Christ through His word.

Fellowship (Donut) Sundays

I have had a few questions about when someone will be able to get a donut again. Thanks to our Parish Council, we do have dates scheduled for these fellowship Sundays for the next year. Instead of going with a consistent Sunday that could cause conflicts with other events in the parish, we decided to look at each month independently and pick the best weekend. We will also be approaching organizations and asking them to take months or to sign up for a month. I hope that this new system will help to make this time more popular than ever! All of the dates are posted on the Google Calendar for the church.

Seminarians at SRA

This week, I will be attending a meeting at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary where I will receive word on who we will be receiving from the seminary to serve in our parish this year. Having gone through the formation program myself, I know the benefit of the Sunday and weekly experience in the parish while preparing to become a priest. I also know that we will benefit greatly from the men who we will receive as well.

I had one young adult approach me interested in getting a group started. Are there any more takers? Please let me know. Thanks!

The Angel Appeal will be coming soon...how is God calling you to be a messenger for Him this year?

a way of life

A wise person recognizes that all we have and all we are come from God. A wise person thanks God continually throughout the day for all His many blessings. A wise person realizes that God has blessed us for a reason and that He wants to help Him build His kingdom of earth.

FRIENDS FOR LIFE CAMPAIGN ENDS

This Sunday, August 19, marks the official end of the FRIENDS FOR LIFE Campaign, but it is not too late to make a donation. Your contribution to FRIENDS FOR LIFE will help to save the lives of the unborn, protect the vulnerable, the weak and the elderly, educate young people about the virtue of chastity, heal those who suffer as the result of an abortion, and provide assistance for women experiencing a crisis pregnancy. You will find your FRIENDS FOR LIFE envelope in the August packet of envelopes or simply mark an envelope FFL and place your donation in the collection basket or drop it off at the rectory.

Thank you for supporting the Culture of Life!!

WEDDING BANNERS II

There is a promise of marriage between Gwen Goedecker and Garrett Conroy to take place at St. Raphael on Saturday, September 1, 2018.

FROM ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." As we know, our loving God cannot be seen by our eyes, but only experienced through loving people. With love for your neighbors who have nothing, we should look around our houses to see what furniture, household items, and clothing we no longer use and give them to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

The St. Raphael conference for St. Vincent de Paul desires donations of common household supplies: toilet paper, facial tissue, laundry and dish soap, food-storage bags, bar soap, shampoo, and conditioner. They will be taken on home visits to neighbors in need. Items may be placed in the bins in the church foyers. We thank you for these and the food items you donate each month.

UPDATE ON DEACON RON FROM JR. JOHN

Deacon Ron is taking time off from active ministry to allow himself time to focus on the next phase of his professional career. I have assured him that we will keep him and Joyce in our prayers during this time of transition.

STEWARDSHIP WEEKEND - AUGUST 25-26, 2018

We become a stronger Parish family by sharing our time and talent. On a monthly basis, the SRA Stewardship Committee selects a Parish organization to feature at the weekend Masses. Representatives of that organization will share how the giving of their time and talent enriches their own lives.

At the weekend Masses of August 25 and 26, representatives of the SRA Music Ministries will be featured. This is part of the ongoing sharing initiative of the Stewardship Committee.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION (RCIA) CLASS FORMING

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, the St. Raphael RCIA class for 2018-19 will be forming in September. The program is designed to answer questions and provide information to people who are exploring the possibility of joining the Church. Classes meet on Wednesday evenings from September through early May. A detailed calendar will be available at the first meeting on Wednesday, September 26. For more information, contact Fr. John at 314.352.8100 or Dennis Matreci at 314.681.3002.

MEET SOME NEW FACES!

Excerpts from “Please Don’t Ask Me to Sing In The Choir!” by Thomas L. Are

Surprised By Reward

“His master said to him, ‘well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.’ ” Matthew 25:21

“Ed, you have a beautiful voice,” she said.

“Oh, I do”? he responded. “Then give all the credit to the Lord. I just sing to praise Him.”

I don’t know why Ed’s piety disturbs me. I guess I don’t trust him. I hope I don’t serve God to earn some profit, but I confess I find singing in the choir rewarding.

On the way home, I asked my daughter, “Do we serve God hoping for some payoff”?

“I hope not. It sort of reduces God to an accountant. I give Him a dime’s worth of service and He awards me a dime’s worth of blessing, with profit, of course. I don’t like that.” she said. “Where does love fit in?”

I agree with my daughter. We relate to God by love, not law. We could give God all we own and still not balance the books. We will always be in debt to Him. His goodness expresses His grace, but never His obligation to us. I wish we could remove reward as motive.

Yet Jesus appealed to rewards in His parables and the Sermon on the Mount. To the faithful servant He said, “Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.” Good works are better than bad works in God’s eyes and He does not respond to them in the same way. Some said, “Remove rewards and apathy has the last word.”

While I seek to serve God because I love Him, at the same time I am aware that my faithfulness brings an inner satisfaction. Sometimes I am rewarded with more work to do, but always the reward catches me by surprise. I never feel deserving of it. God gives it out of His grace and that’s the greatest prize of all.

Yes, I do find singing in the choir rewarding.

Prayer: Lord, help us to serve because we love you. And when you reward us, fill us with surprised gratitude.

In Christ, Amen.

Adult choir rehearsals will begin Wednesday, September 5 at 7:00pm in Church. Utter it unto the ends of the earth! Come and sing joyful praises! All are welcome.

JOIN OUR BOOK CLUB

The Women’s Faith Sharing group will read and discuss a book by St. Louis author, Colleen Carroll Campbell, entitled My Sisters the Saints, A Spiritual Memoir. This is a poignant and powerful spiritual memoir about how the lives of the saints changed the life of a modern woman. In My Sisters the Saints, the author blends her personal narrative of spiritual seeking, trials, stumbles, and breakthroughs with the stories of six women saints who profoundly changed her life: Teresa of Avila; Therese of Lisieux, Faustina of Poland, Edith Stein of Germany, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, and Mary of Nazareth. Drawing upon the rich writings and examples of these extraordinary women, the author reveals Christianity’s liberating power for women and the relevance of the saints to the lives of contemporary Christians. We will begin gathering on Tuesday, September 4, at 7:30pm and meet for 6 weeks in the lower level of the Parish Office. Grab a copy of the book and join us! Everyone is welcome! No registration is required, but please let us know so that we will have a large enough space. ## A Prayer before Holy Mass

Heavenly Father: I, your unworthy servant, come to worship You in this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. By Your grace, kindly help me to listen attentively, pray devoutly, and receive worthily the Sacred Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. May Your Holy Spirit open the eyes of my heart to perceive more fully the great Mystery that takes place on the sacred altar. At this Holy Mass, I wish to pray in particular for the following intentions: (here name them). Amen.
