FR. JOHN'S DIGITAL QUILL FOR SPIRITUAL MUSINGS AND PARISH NEWS

We welcome Fr. Jimel Varela from the Diocese of Catarman, Philippines, this weekend to preach to us on the missions in the Philippines and how we can help to be partners in the mission work there.

Finding God in all things

St. Ignatius, with his experience of God while recuperating and subsequently finding his way from being soldier to priest and founder of a religious order, had a dynamic relationship with God. This relationship extended beyond the set times of prayer he kept throughout the day.

Ignatius believed God was much more active in our lives than we may tend to think. He taught that God was present in all things we did. He was not a mere spectator or present in a mere intellectual way, but actively present and desiring to love us in that moment. By following His inspirations, we could see and experience him throughout our day, whether we are at prayer or not.

Such a teaching is valuable to us. At times, we can believe that we are alone, that God has entrusted us with His plan and that we have to somehow figure out what He wants us to do. Ignatius corrects this false belief. Yes, God wants us to complete what He has asked us to do, but is beside us the whole way to encourage and strengthen us to do it.

God's presence is not always readily apparent. Certainly, we have had moments where we know God is there, but often times He is there in a somewhat veiled way. He gives us inspirations to let us know where He is, but we can accept them or reject them or maybe even not be aware of them at all.

This is where good discernment is needed. Discernment is a spiritual practice that encourages our whole person to look more deeply at a situation and to see where God is moving, where we are moving, and where the evil one may be lurking. As a discerning person, we can never underestimate God's plan for us. He is there, even when we think there is no way He can be, hoping we see Him and come closer to Him through whatever we experience.

One way to begin to discern is through the examen, which I wrote about last week. If we can look back at our day to where God was working, we can learn how He enters our lives and we can look for these events.

God also often works through our desires. At times, we can be shy in speaking about what we want, because we do not want to be selfish. But our desires are still pushing and pulling us; we cannot deny them. So we instead need to be honest about them. What are our desires? Which seem to be holy? Which are purely selfish? Which just lead us into unhealthy places? This sorting through our desires can help reveal where God is moving.

When examining our desires, there are areas that we do not want to visit. These are our fears. When we discern, we have to challenge these areas, because they constrict where we are willing to go to discover where God might lead us. It is challenging, but naming our fears is a good first step. No matter how silly they may seem once we say them or how seriously they frighten us, once we name them they do not have the same hold over us. We can then see them in the light of truth, truth that will help us to see clearly where God is working in our lives.

Also to see God working does not mean we will know everything. Stick with what we know before delving into what might happen in a given situation.

Once we have discerned, we can check ourselves about our decision. The decision made, we can examine ourselves. Do we feel at peace about what we have decided? What still troubles us? Is it natural that we would feel this way or should we perhaps reconsider?

Being a person of discernment and trying to find God in all things is not an exact science. It is an art. At times, we will do well and at other times, we will learn what we wish we had known. Let that not be a hindrance to being a person of discernment but an assurance of God's mercy and love.

SRA CONTEMPORARY CHOIR NEWS

The SRA Contemporary Choir (SPN @ SRA) will be singing at the Annual Outdoor Novena to Our Lady of Mount Carmel on Saturday, July 20, at 8:00pm. Prelude starts at 7:45pm.

Please join us in worship at this sacred event located at Carmelite Monastery, 9150 Clayton Road, 63124.

FROM ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

In today's Gospel, when Jesus wonders "which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim," the scholar of the law answered, "the one who treated him with mercy." Jesus then said, "Go and do likewise." This week you can also "treat the poor with mercy" by making a donation to the St. Raphael conference for St. Vincent de Paul, knowing that our members will bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering in our parish.

SRA RELIGIOUS LIBRARY

Thank you to the SRA Parishioners who have donated to the St. Raphael the Archangel Religious Library, located in the Highfield Avenue vestibule. While there is still space on the shelves for more books, the library is growing! We hope it will be a resource for our Parish to deepen our knowledge of faith and our love for God.

The library works by donations. Please place any books on faith that you would like to donate to the library on top of the bookcase. After they are checked in, you are free to take a book from one of the shelves. When you have finished it, please return the book to the top of the bookcase.

BRIEF PROFILE

Diocese of Catarman, Philippines

I am Rev. Jimel D. Varela from the Diocese of Catarman. At present, I am assigned as Rector of John Paul Seminary, Alisyao Heights, Makiwalo, Mondragon N. Samar 6417 Philippines. This year, I have been sent by my bishop to conduct the Mission Appeal on behalf of our Diocese.

The Diocese of Catarman is situated in the Northern Part of the island of Samar, south of the Philippines. Its total population is 500,639 but out of that we have a total Catholic population of 365,967, which is 73.10% of the whole population. The main source of livelihood for most of the people is farming and fishing, which comprises 55% of the whole populace. The illiteracy rate is 66% because of the lack of schools and the neglect of the government to educate. The leading causes of death are: 1) pneumonia, 2) heart disease, 3) hypo cardio-vascular disease, 4) pulmonary tuberculosis and 5) diarrhea. A third of the preschoolers are underweight. Major causes of malnutrition are: poverty or low income, inadequate food supply, lack of nutrition knowledge, infectious diseases, poor environmental and hygienic conditions, lack of potable water supply, lack of health facilities, poor delivery of basic health services, large family size and low food production. The staple food is rice and corn as a substitute. Our main agricultural product is coconut and abaca is secondary.

Most Reverend Emmanuel C. Trance, PhD, DD is the shepherd of the local church in Catarman. At present, we have 75 priests actively working in the Diocese and we have 45 seminarians enrolled in the different levels of seminary formation from pre-college, to college, and then theology. We have at least 900 volunteer catechists working for the evangelization and catechetical instruction on school-based programs and during summer time. The main thrust of the Diocese is the Basic Ecclesial Community (BEC) wherein we have volunteers that serve as personnel in our out reach programs especially to those who are called “unchurched” so that they too will be able to know God and receive a proper Christian formation.

This mission appeal is made under the auspices of the Propagation of the Faith to help with relief needs of the children and the poor, the formation of lay leaders and the clergy’s health and continuing-education-assistance programs.

GOD WANTS TO BE KNOWN

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and who want to share that love with others. (Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.)

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" (Luke 10:37)

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love your neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone who looks different from you or someone whom you don't like, all without expecting anything in return.

ARCHBISHOP CARLSON'S STEWARDSHIP GOAL

"Let us focus on generosity, or returning God's gifts with increase, through the generous sharing of our time, talent, and treasure."

Prayerful Scripture Reading

All are welcome to join us on Tuesday evenings at 7:30pm in the lower level of the parish office to prayerfully read and reflect on the Scripture readings for the coming Sunday.

Learn to dive into the Scriptures and picture yourself in the places and events you read about. Hear what the Scriptures that were written so long ago have to say to you about your life right here and now. Take the time to meditate on what you're reading and let it form a prayer in your heart that will bring you to put your faith into action.

Bring your Bible and a prayerful spirit. Questions, please contact Sue Brandt at 314.704.5304 or sbrandtstl@gmail.com.

All women are invited to Kenrick-Glennon Seminary (5200 Glennon Drive, 63119) on the third Thursday of each month for prayer and a talk. The next meeting will be on Thursday, July 18. The speaker will be Monsignor James Ramacciotti, Assistant Professor of Canon Law at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. Monsignor's talk is entitled, "Bless Me Father: The Seal of Confession." The Rosary will be prayed at 8:00am and Msgr. Ramacciotti will speak from 8:15am until 9:00am. Coffee will be offered afterwards in the Fireside Lounge until 9:30am. For more information or to watch videos from past Fiat talks, please see: www.kenrick.edu/fiat.
