A PRAYER BEFORE HOLY MASS

Heavenly Father: I, your unworthy servant, come to worship You in this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. By Your grace, kindly help me to listen attentively, pray devoutly, and receive worthily the Sacred Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. May Your Holy Spirit open the eyes of my heart to perceive more fully the great Mystery that takes place on the sacred altar. At this Holy Mass, I wish to pray in particular for the following intentions: (here name them). Amen.

Fr. John's Digital Quill for Spiritual Musings and Parish News

Welcome to our Black and Gold Dinner Auction Weekend

We thank all those who supported our dinner auction this weekend. We hope that you will have fun as we help our young people grow in truth and in the love of Christ.

Receptions with Fr. John

Since I arrived at St. Raphael, a group of parishioners have been putting together and hosting receptions for me so that I can get to know people in the parish and people can get to know me. I have found these meetings enjoyable and informative as I come to know the parish.

The danger with having such receptions is that there can be a perception that some parishioners are more important to the parish or to me than other parishioners. While I can understand this perception, this is simply not the case in truth. Indeed, I want to get to know and hear from as many people as possible at all times so that I can best lead the parish and hear the direction of the Holy Spirit in the people that I am called to serve.

My Mother taught me two important lessons. First, never invite yourself over to someone's home. It is simply rude and I try to follow this good advice. Second, never refuse an invitation. This, too, I have tried to follow and have found it very fruitful advice as well. The point of mentioning these two pieces of advice is that I will not seek out invitations but, if any come my way, I will do my best to accommodate that request. If you would like to talk with me at any time or just enjoy some coffee or a meal, please reach out to me via phone or email. I only ask these ways so that I can have my calendar available and can enter the date and time there.

All Souls Mass November 9

This Friday, November 9, at 7:00 pm, we invite all of those who have lost a loved one, particularly in the past year, to come together at a special Mass that evening. We will remember your dear ones in a particular way at that Mass.

Donna Cori Gibson Concert November 11

Next Sunday, we have an awesome opportunity to come together as a faith community and be uplifted and inspired in our faith lives. Donna Cori Gibson is a Catholic laywoman who has a great gift of praising God in song. These songs, both formal and personal, help to lead us into a deeper relationship with Christ. Her faith-filled witness is challenging and inspiring. She will be providing her concert/prayer opportunity on November 11 (NEXT SUNDAY), at 6:00 pm in church. I pray you will make time for this impactful time of prayer.

Healing Prayer Service November 13

We are all in need of healing. This desire for healing may be physical, emotional, or spiritual. Perhaps we need to pray for healing in a relationship or pray that we can forgive another or even ourselves.

Next Tuesday, November 13, at 7:00 pm, we will be having a prayer service to ask for the gift of healing. There will be a Gospel and homily, time for silent prayer, confessions, and Benediction. I invite everyone to take advantage of this time of healing.

Advent Wreath Making November 24

This fun and faith-filled family event is returning to SRA! Make plans to join us on Saturday, November 24 after 4:30 pm Mass in the cafeteria. You know by then you will be tired of turkey, football, and shopping, so join us as we prepare for Advent.

Advent by Candlelight December 2

Speaking of Advent, ladies, Advent by Candlelight is also back this year. Fr. Matt O'Toole, a former Associate here at SRA and Great Preacher of the year 2018, will be back to lead us in growing closer to the Lord this Advent. Make plans to be there!

Advent Resources

In the next few weeks, you will be receiving an Advent booklet. I pray that this will provide a daily thought or two to help you better spiritually prepare for Christmas.

Also, our entire Advent and Christmas schedule will be mailed to you in the coming weeks with a couple of additions. We will be having a time to come together as a parish for confessions on Tuesday, December 11 at 7:00 pm. I call it a Family Penance Service, because we invite the whole family to come to this time of spiritual renewal. I also do a time that I call "Last Call Confessions." This is a three-hour block just before Christmas (December 23) to be exact that I will be in the confessional and you can come to confession. No prayer service, no music, just confession and quiet time with the Lord.

Finally, you will want to come to Christmas Mass at SRA this year to get your special gift! No, sorry, I cannot tell you; it's a surprise!

I will see you in Church!

St. Raphael the Archangel, pray for us! - Fr. John

"And to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself" is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."
MARK 12:33 What God wants the most is our hearts. He wants us to share out of love, not out of obligation. Using our talents in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission are important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God and to discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

WINTER OUTREACH - A MINISTRY OF MERCY

With gratitude to all the SRA parishioners who make this ministry possible year after year, we are encouraged by our Catholic Social Teachings: "Option for the Poor and Vulnerable," our Parish Community is truly committed to making St. Louis Winter Outreach a faith Ministry of Mercy. "As long as you did it to one of these the least of my brethren, you did it to me." (MT 25:31-46)

As winter approaches, many homeless "brethren" will be spending their days and nights on the streets of St. Louis. In an effort to give them some comfort, we are asking for help in providing meals during the coldest months. Drivers are also needed to deliver the meals to Americorps Shelter (1315 Ann Street) on our assigned Saturdays:

November 17

January 19

December 15

February 16

Please consider assisting the Ministry of Mercy by providing one or more of the following:

9 x 13 Casserole (Meat, Vegetable or Breakfast)

Dessert - 12 to 24 Servings

Food is to be dropped off at Our Lady of Sorrows Parish Hall by 1:00 pm. If needed, arrangements can be made to pick it up from your home. If you would like more information, would like to share a dish, and/or be a driver, please contact Mary Ellen Mueller at 314.374.1712 or email maryem@brick.net.

Ladies' Day of Reflection

This Saturday, November 10

Ladies, there is still space available to join Donna Cori Gibson as she presents a day to step aside and focus on yourself this Saturday. Registration forms are available at the entrance to church, on the parish website, or you may contact Sue Brandt, 314.704.5304 or womenfaith@straphaelarchangel.org. School News

On behalf of our family, we would like to thank everyone for attending the 2018 St. Raphael Black and Gold Auction. In looking back at our first year as the Auction Chairs, we are eternally grateful to all the parishioners, parents and friends who donated, and volunteered their time and effort to help make this event such a great success.

Liz and I would also like to take a moment to thank the teachers and faculty at our school. The countless hours you commit to improving the lives of all the children attending SRA is appreciated by everyone in this parish, more than you would ever know. On behalf of all the parents of our beloved school, thank you for all that you do each day.

We love this school and community, and truly believe it is one of the greatest environments to provide a Catholic Education to children in our area. It is truly inspiring to be a part of this parish, continuously watching all SRA parents devote their time and energy to developing their child's educational, spiritual and athletic knowledge daily. Evenings like the auction give us the ability to celebrate our children's achievements, and to further invest in ways to help continue their growth. We sincerely hope you had a wonderful time attending the 2018 St. Raphael Black and Gold Dinner Auction.

ADVENT BY CANDLELIGHT

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2ND 6:00PM - ST. RAPHAEL GYM

Advent by Candlelight is an invitation for women to step away from hectic Christmas activities and instead focus on the inner preparation which is the purpose of the Advent season in readying our hearts and homes to receive the gift of the infant Jesus.

The evening opens with hostesses greeting their guests and general visiting among all those present. Then it continues with a short prayer service, followed by sharing of light hors d'oeuvres or dessert provided by each hostess for her particular table, and concludes with a guest speaker who never fails to inspire us.

We are very excited this year to have Fr. Matt O'Toole as our speaker. Fr. O'Toole currently serves as pastor at St. Margaret of Scotland. An avid student of history with a great appreciation for art, literature, and popular entertainment, Fr. O'Toole weaves these elements into his preaching to create a tapestry of meaning and makes the Gospel of Christ and the Catholic faith relevant and meaningful. He was the recent recipient of the 2018 Great Preacher Award. He's also a native of South St. Louis (St. Joan of Arc Parish) and served as associate pastor of St. Raphael the Archangel from 1996-2001.

Please consider being a table hostess and treating your friends, relatives or neighbors to this special event. The duties of a table hostess include reserving a table, inviting up to 7 guests (8 people per table), decorating your table and providing table settings and light appetizers/desserts for your guests. More detailed information will be given to each hostess.

We are encouraging hostesses to keep their food very simple in trying to keep with our desire to offer a less stressful, more peaceful and enjoyable evening among friends. This is a FREE event, but we will take up a collection for our parish if you would like to contribute that evening.

Conversations about illness, death and dying are never easy. Whether death comes suddenly or after prolonged illness, most of us are not comfortable discussing our medical wishes or end-of-life plans with our loved ones. However, being prepared ensures that your final wishes are followed. It is important for you and your loved ones to understand the Church's teachings on end-of-life decisions. Advance planning on your part keeps your family from having to make these difficult decisions.

This free seminar is for people of all ages and life situations: singles, parents of young families, those caring for aging parents and those facing illness or death. There will be no solicitation at this event.
