FR. JOHN'S DIGITAL QUILL FOR SPIRITUAL MUSINGS AND PARISH NEWS

Having Holy Mass Offered for Your Intentions

Each weekend at Mass, I see people eagerly pick up their bulletin and peruse it. One weekly constant you may see in the bulletin are the Mass Intentions.

The Mass benefits those who attend that particular Mass. It also benefits the entire parish and the Church as a whole as well. There is also a particular grace that is obtained and can be applied to a specific person or intention. The Mass intention tells the priest who or what to keep in mind in prayer during the Mass.

Pope St. Paul VI reminded us that, "The Mass is the most perfect form of prayer"! Having a Mass offered, then, for a person or for an intention means that we are asking God for much grace to come upon that intention. We know in faith and trust that God will hear and answer such a fervent prayer offered by His children.

While many Masses are offered for someone who has died, I remember a quote that impacted me greatly. It said that it is good to have Mass offered for someone who has died. How much better, though, to have Mass offered for someone who is alive and who can grow holier from the blessings of Mass.

Having a Mass offered, then, is a touching gesture. It invokes God's blessing upon a person and promotes growth in love of God.

Monsignor and I keep a copy of the Mass intentions in the sacristy where we vest and we initial the Mass we offer each day. It is our system here to ensure we do pray for and remember these intentions at Mass.

If you are interested in having a Mass offered, please contact the parish office or stop by during the times the parish office is open. There is an offering of $10 for a Mass, but requesting a Mass is not contingent on the offering. If you want a Mass said and cannot make an offering, please write me and we will make sure that your request is granted.

Report to the Community

Please be sure you take home with you today a copy of the semi-annual report to the community. We hope that you will find it an informative look back over the past year and a look forward as we journey together in the near future.

I also want to remind everyone of the Semi-Annual Report to the Community meeting tonight at 5:00pm in the cafeteria. This meeting will provide more detail and will be an opportunity for people to ask questions as well. We will try to be informative, but brief, so please expect around 30 minutes or so for this meeting.

Iowa Testing

This week, our students will be participating in the annual Iowa standardized testing. Many blessings to our students and know of our prayers for you!

RCIA Begins This Week!

Our Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults classes will begin this Wednesday, September 18, at 6:30pm in the parish office. If you are interested in joining to be Baptized, to be received into the Catholic Church, or to be Confirmed as an adult, please give me a call for more information or come to our first meeting Wednesday evening!

Bible Study

We will begin on Thursday, September 26, a new Bible Study here at SRA. The first four weeks of the study will give a general introduction to the Bible and outline salvation history. We will meet from 7:00pm to 8:15pm on September 26, October 3, October 10, and October 17. All of these are Thursdays. We will be meeting in the Raphael Room in the Parish Office.

If you are thinking of coming, I would ask that you would call or e-mail just to make sure we have enough chairs for everyone.

Rummage Sale to Support SRA School

In two weeks, on September 28, we will have a rummage sale on our parking lot. This event will feature people from throughout South St. Louis coming to our parking lot to view and buy treasures. For $20, you can have a parking spot to sell some of your treasures as well. Spots are going fast! Please see the advertisement later in the bulletin for more information.

A PRAYER BEFORE HOLY MASS

Heavenly Father: I, your unworthy servant, come to worship You in this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. By Your grace, kindly help me to listen attentively, pray devoutly, and receive worthily the Sacred Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. May Your Holy Spirit open the eyes of my heart to perceive more fully the great Mystery that takes place on the sacred altar. At this Holy Mass, I wish to pray in particular for the following intentions: (here name them). Amen.

SRA Fall Sports Mass

Thanks to a friendly reminder from our Parish Council, we will be having our Fall Sports Mass on Sunday, October 13, at 10:00am Mass. Our student athletes and coaches are invited to attend Mass that day in their uniforms and there will be a special blessing for them at that Mass.

Looking to Get Involved? The Development Committee Needs You!

We are currently looking for an individual or small group of individuals to plan an SRA trip to a winery. The Development Committee will assist you in planning and executing the event.

I will see you in Church! - Fr. John #SRAstrong

FROM ARCHBISHOP CARLSON

To the Faithful of the Archdiocese of St. Louis,

I know I speak for many when I say how deeply saddened I am by the deaths and the devastation that our brothers and sisters in the Bahamas are experiencing in the aftermath of Hurricane Dorian. I ask the Lord to carry those who have lost so much.

To help provide both immediate and long-term aid to those recovering from this natural disaster, I am asking our nearly 180 parishes to participate in a second collection at all Masses the weekend of September 21 and 22. Catholic Charities of St. Louis will forward 100% of funds raised to Catholic Relief Services, which provides relief in hurricane-impacted communities.

I will be offering a Mass for those who lost their lives and the loved ones who are grieving. I ask you to please join your prayers with mine for those who must rebuild their lives after this tragedy.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Everything I have is yours." (Luke 15:31)

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son, we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do we really want to turn our backs on all that God offers in exchange for material wealth that has no lasting value?

PRAYER FOR STEWARDSHIP

*Lord Jesus, create in us new hearts.
Pour your spirit upon us so that we may do the will of the Father.*

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that the shepherd rejoices when he finds one lost sheep. The story tells us that nothing and no one is insignificant to God who is compassionate and loving to all. As you donate to our St. Raphael conference for the Society, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering. Last month, we assisted families in our parish boundaries with $1,385 in rent assistance, $1,342 in utility assistance, $300 in food vouchers, plus other household expenses.
