FR. JOHN'S DIGITAL QUILL FOR SPIRITUAL MUSINGS AND PARISH NEWS

Your Promise Still Stands

As was announced last week at Masses, last Friday our school did sustain some water damage. The affected areas are the principal's office, Title One classroom, office area, hallways, and Kindergarten classroom. We are diligently working with our insurance company and the restoration company to repair these areas as quickly as possible.

This damage is minor compared to what some in our community have experienced this past year with so much rain. It is trivial when we watch the news and see damage caused by hurricanes and fires.

One question I have asked myself, as I have spent a good deal of time in dealing with this situation, is where is God? Where can we find God amid the deafening roar of 40 fans and dehumidifiers? Or putting a meter to the wall and determining how wet the area is and the risks associated with the situation?

In the Book of Lamentations, the author speaks in Chapter 3 about how his soul is downcast thinking of all he has endured and how God has seemed to be absent through it all. Then the author strikes a suddenly hopeful note:

The LORD's acts of mercy are not exhausted, his compassion is not spent; they are renewed each morning—great is your faithfulness! (Lamentations 3:22-23)

Prayerfully reading the passage this week, I have found the great comfort and peace that I have desired since the situation broke on Friday evening. God is still here and desiring to be with us, even though it does not seem that He could be. He wants to abide and bless all that we do even when He seems to be completely absent.

I pray that I may remember this lesson and that it may be of help to you in your own journey of faith.

Permission forms for Confirmation Sponsors and Godparents

Every year towards the beginning of the school year, I like to publish a couple of reminders about how to get forms to be a Confirmation Sponsor or a Godparent signed by me.

These letters are not a pro forma matter. They are me saying that I know the person to be a faith-filled, practicing Catholic who is prepared to assume this office. I take this responsibility very seriously.

Thus, I ask that these forms be brought by the sponsor or Godparent to a Saturday evening or Sunday Mass. After Mass, I will be happy to meet with you briefly to have a conversation about the role you are about to assume and to sign the form. Forms dropped off at the office, faxed, or e-mailed will not be signed and will be returned with a reminder of this policy.

College students who attend school away from St. Louis are asked to see if the priest where they attend Mass will sign the form. If the priest will not sign it, they should submit it to me along with a letter explaining their faith practice while in college.

Finally, these forms are normally handed out by the parish or school well before the ceremony. I greatly appreciate your getting this form and bringing it to Mass in a timely manner. Exceptions may be made for exceptional circumstances but should never be assumed.

Praying For and Healing Our Suffering Church

Thank you to all of those who took part in our Day of Prayer in Reparation for Abuses in the Church this past Friday. Know of my personal gratitude as a priest to see so many gathering in prayer for a deep desire in my heart: the renewal of our Church and of the priesthood.

A reminder too that on Tuesday, September 10, a group of parishioners will be leading a discussion on Bishop Robert Barron's Letter to a Suffering Church. This discussion will be in the cafeteria beginning at 7:30pm. Neither Msgr. Stehly nor I will be present at this gathering. I pray this will be a time of good conversation, prayer, and movement towards action. May Mary, our Sorrowful Mother, continue to be with us as we pray with those who weep and look with hope to the future.

A PRAYER BEFORE HOLY MASS

Heavenly Father: I, your unworthy servant, come to worship You in this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. By Your grace, kindly help me to listen attentively, pray devoutly, and receive worthily the Sacred Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. May Your Holy Spirit open the eyes of my heart to perceive more fully the great Mystery that takes place on the sacred altar. At this Holy Mass, I wish to pray in particular for the following intentions: (here name them). Amen.

Special Reports Next Weekend

Next weekend, we have several opportunities for the community to hear about where our parish and school stand here at St. Raphael.

At all of the doors of the church, we will have the Annual Report to the Community. This report will detail the past year's sacramental life, financial results, and reports from me and from the school about our direction in the coming year.

This written report will be coupled with a member of the Finance Committee speaking at all of the Masses, highlighting the past year's finances and taking a look ahead at the budget.

On Sunday, September 15, at 5:00pm in the cafeteria, we will present a semi-annual report to the community. This meeting is open to anyone in the parish. Mrs. Terri Borowiak, Parish Council President, and I will be giving a half-hour presentation on the state of the parish and our future direction.

Our hope is that these meetings will help you to be even more excited about the great things happening at St. Raphael and to keep our great momentum going.

Parish Council Retreat

I ask your prayers for the Parish Council as we will be spending next Saturday afternoon in prayerful discernment about our priorities for the upcoming year. May the Holy Spirit continue to stir up in our leaders the desire to follow where He leads.

Rummage Sale to Support SRA School

On September 28, we have a renewed event coming to our community. The SRA rummage sale invites people from throughout South St. Louis to come to our parking lot to view and buy treasures. We invite you to begin looking through your house and seeing if selling (or buying) some of the great things at this sale is right for you!

Bible Study

A Bible Study is coming to SRA soon! This Bible Study will be a general introduction to the Bible and an explanation of the broad outline of salvation history. We will meet from 7:00pm to 8:15pm on September 26, October 3, October 10, and October 17. All of these are Thursdays.

Children ages 3 to 1st grade are invited to participate. We will call them up for a blessing after the opening prayer of Mass and they will come back before Communion.

At the Pre-School of Religion, they will use the Seeds program to learn about the Gospel for the Sunday. The teens of our parish will be the facilitators for this encounter with God's Word.
