APRIL 13, 2025 PALM SUNDAY

Palm Sunday and Holy Week

The holiest of weeks opens with Palm Sunday as a special gateway into the Paschal Mystery, the celebration of the redemptive act of Jesus Christ. All over the world, Catholics are hearing the story of the Passion and Death of Jesus as we carry palm branches, symbolic of saints entering the kingdom of God. While the residents of ancient Jerusalem cast them on the ground before Jesus, we hold ours as a reminder of our call to follow Christ on His journey.

Some would minimize the week by seeing the events as separate actions unrelated, but that is a disservice to faith. The suffering of Jesus at the hands of His persecutors is intimately connected to His victory of resurrection. The sharing of His Eucharist at the Last Supper is an act of preparation of all disciples in all ages to be assured of His enduring presence among us. The act of dying upon the cross opens access to eternal life for us all, as He conquers death in His rising in the flesh to eternal life.

I encourage you to participate as fully as possible in the holy days of this week, especially Holy Thursday's Mass of the Lord's Supper, Good Friday's Service of the Passion, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. These days hold up to us the glory of God's salvation.

The Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday) will be celebrated at both churches.

Easter Sunday "Retired Priests" Collection

Each year on Easter, we ask for your support of the priests in retirement. This collection is used for the parish priests who have served the Archdiocese of St. Louis and are retired from active ministry. Many still assist in parishes on an "as needed" basis. Many others are infirm and need more assistance. Your support helps care for them. Thanks for your support. Envelopes will be at the doors of the church. You may also go to www.archstl.org/retiredpriests for more information.

What to do with palms

Now that you have palm fronds, some have asked what to do with them. An old custom was to place them behind the crucifix you have in your home as a reminder of our participation in the Sacrifice of Christ. Then, next year as we prepare for Lent, return the old palm to church for proper disposal (burning) and replace it with next year's palm. Don't have a crucifix in the home? Catholic Supply has a wonderful collection, or perhaps ask older relatives for one that may have family history. The crucifix that hung above my parents' bed is now hanging at my sister's home as a reminder of their love and faith.

We speak often about how we try to help and influence our neighbors in need. But it is important to mention the profound influence those neighbors have on us. There are so many ways our experiences help us to reflect on our own lives and to give ourselves a personal examination. It is neighbors helping neighbors, and your prayers and donations make it all possible.

This weekend's Sacred Scripture readings:

Sunday, April 13:

Ritual Song: No. 1141
Pray Together
Blessing of the Branches: 18
Scripture Reading: 21
Gospel: 23

"...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." Luke 22:34

How many times do you hear someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How do you react? Do you remain quiet so as to avoid a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you think you don't know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful conversation when the opportunity arises to discuss our faith. Joyfully share our faith with others.

SRA Lenten Project

Please contribute to this year's Lenten project...financial donations will continue to be welcomed through the end of Lent and will benefit the prison ministries in both the Pacific Correctional Center and the Residents Encounter Christ retreat program. (If you still have items to donate to Our Lady's Inn, please deliver them to the Parish Office this week.)

- Through our financial donation given to the Pacific Correctional Center and the Residents Encounter Christ retreat program, we are helping those who are conducting retreat programs and administering the Sacraments to those incarcerated. The incarcerated will personally encounter Jesus Christ from those who visit. We have been told that these encounters are "...beneficial to the incarcerated and a blessing to their families."
- Envelopes are included in the pews (cash or checks); envelopes can be put in the collection basket or taken to the SRA parish office. If you prefer online giving, look for "Lenten Project" as a donation option.

If you have any questions, please contact the parish office at 314.352.8100. By your support, we are practicing three of the Corporal Works of Mercy (sheltering the homeless, visiting those in prison, and giving alms to the poor) that we as Catholics are called to do...a work of justice that is pleasing to God.

Thank you for your generosity; to date, financial donations total $8,578.00.
