READINGS FOR AUGUST 7, 2022 - NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Entrance Antiphon

Cf. PS 74 (73): 20, 19, 22, 23

Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

Reading 1

Wis 18:6-9

The night of the Passover was known beforehand to our fathers, that, with sure knowledge of the oaths in which they put their faith, they might have courage. Your people awaited the salvation of the just and the destruction of their foes. For when you punished our adversaries, in this you glorified us whom you had summoned. For in secret the holy children of the good were offering sacrifice and putting into effect with one accord the divine institution.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33:1, 12, 18-19, 20-22

R. Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. Exult, you just, in the LORD; praise from the upright is fitting. Blessed the nation whose God is the LORD, the people he has chosen for his own inheritance. R. Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness, To deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. R. Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. Our soul waits for the LORD, who is our help and our shield. May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you. R. Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Reading 2

Heb 11:1-2, 8-19

Brothers and sisters: Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. Because of it the ancients were well attested. By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; he went out, not knowing where he was to go. By faith he sojourned in the Promised Land as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs of the same promise; for he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and maker is God. By faith he received power to generate, even though he was past the normal age —and Sarah herself was sterile— for he thought that the one who had made the promise was trustworthy. So it was that there came forth from one man, himself as good as dead, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sands on the seashore. All these died in faith. They did not receive what had been promised but saw it and greeted it from afar and acknowledged themselves to be strangers and aliens on earth, for those who speak thus show that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land from which they had come, they would have had opportunity to return. But now they desire a better homeland, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them. By faith Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer his only son, of whom it was said, “Through Isaac descendants shall bear your name.” He reasoned that God was able to raise even from the dead, and he received Isaac back as a symbol.

Gospel

Lk 12:32-48

Jesus said to his disciples: “Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be. “Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master’s return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them. And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.” Then Peter said, “Lord, is this parable meant for us or for everyone?” And the Lord replied, “Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master on arrival finds doing so. Truly, I say to you, the master will put the servant in charge of all his property. But if that servant says to himself, ‘My master is delayed in coming,’ and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, to eat and drink and get drunk, then that servant’s master will come on an unexpected day and at an unknown hour and will punish the servant severely and assign him a place with the unfaithful. That servant who knew his master’s will but did not make preparations nor act in accord with his will shall be beaten severely; and the servant who was ignorant of his master’s will but acted in a way deserving of a severe beating shall be beaten only lightly. Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more.”

"For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." Luke 12:34

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are we investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are we investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more in the things of heaven, we must let go of some of the things of this world.

From St. Vincent de Paul Society

In this Gospel, Jesus says "Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy." Please help the Society bring respite and hope to the elderly who are not able to find relief from the summer heat, and you will indeed find "an inexhaustible treasure in heaven!"

Friends for Life Campaign

We give thanks to God for the Supreme Court decision to overturn Roe v Wade, but our work is not finished. There will still be women and families in need of help due to a crisis pregnancy. The Friends for Life Campaign gives us that opportunity. The campaign will extend from August 1 to August 14. Your gift will support the work of the Respect Life Apostolate and the ProLife agencies that aid those in need: Our Lady's Inn, Birthright, Good Shepherd Children and Family Services, and the Blessed Teresa of Calcutta Fund. Look for your envelope in the August packet of envelopes and place it in the collection basket. We are so grateful for your outstanding generosity!

Prayer 101

Prayer 101 is open to all parishioners! The why's, how's, when's and where's of prayer will be discussed in a three-part series workshop at St. Raphael Parish in church. If you've ever thought how can I enrich my prayer life or make it more personal with God; are there do's and don'ts of prayer; I want to make more time for prayer but don't know how or where; or simply, I don't know where to start when talking with God, this workshop is for you! Each workshop will begin at 7:00pm and will last approximately 45 minutes, with no books to read or videos to watch. On August 10, the workshop will be on why we should pray; on August 17, it will be on how to pray; and then the workshop wraps up on August 24, with discussion on when and where to pray. You don't need to attend all three workshops (but it would be great if you could!). No sign-up is required...just come to church on any or all of the three dates. The workshops will be led by parishioner Pam Hager, recently commissioned by Archbishop Rozanski upon her completion of the Archdiocese's three-year Lay Formation Program. If you have any questions, you may call Pam at 314.239.1221 or email her at hager@straphaelarchangel.org. Thank you and see you on August 10!!!

Annual Catholic Appeal Reminder

The Parish Annual Catholic Appeal is a SUCCESS! Thanks to your generosity, the parish surpassed its "Challenge Goal" by several thousand dollars! The exact amount will not be known for several weeks.

Is it hard for you to share your faith? Do you shy away from talking with others about God? We know we are meant to evangelize, to spread the Gospel, to tell and invite others to faith in Jesus Christ. But we feel too shy or fearful to do so.

The topic for our next Alpha session is "Why and How Should I Tell Others?" Won't you join us? We meet Friday, August 12, in the cafeteria. Dinner is at 6:30pm, followed by a 35-minute video and small group discussion time. No reservation is needed; just come and feel welcome.
