"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants." - Mk 4:30-32b

Care for the Missions

Many thanks for your kind welcome to Sr. Pelagia Karengi with the Congregation of the Daughters of Mary-Tabora (CDMT) Tanzania, East Africa. She appreciated the opportunity to visit the parish. Please make any donations soon, and, if not in the "Mission" envelopes available in the church, just mark your donation "Missions." All proceeds will be sent to her community.

Welcome Fr. Robert Lawson

I'm pleased to welcome Fr. Lawson as our new Associate Pastor (officially called a Parochial Vicar – fun facts to know and learn). Like myself, he will be serving both parishes. You will begin to see him around; please introduce yourself and help him in this time of transition. In his first couple of weeks, he will be getting settled but will be in the regular rotation of Masses come July.

Summer Visits

On the evening of June 23, a youth group from Ohio will spend the night in our cafeteria on their way home from a conference in Kansas. Please respect their privacy by not using the cafeteria or gym that night. It is an act of mercy to extend a shelter to travelers, and I appreciate the availability of our campus to help other Catholic groups. Thanks.

A Prayer Before Holy Mass

Heavenly Father: I, your unworthy servant, come to worship You in this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. By Your grace, kindly help me to listen attentively, pray devoutly, and receive worthily the Sacred Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. May Your Holy Spirit open the eyes of my heart to perceive more fully the great Mystery that takes place on the sacred altar. At this Holy Mass, I wish to pray in particular for the following intentions: (here name them). Amen.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish of Saint Raphael the Archangel, celebrate Jesus as the center of our life. Through our active participation in the Eucharist, we strive to recognize Jesus in our daily lives and the lives of others. Our commitment is to grow as a parish family, and live this through our religious, educational, social, and civic involvements, witnessing to all, our faith in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil." 2 Corinthians 5:10

We are accountable for all of the gifts God has given us, our time, our talent, and our treasure, everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own lives but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what we did with the gifts we were given. How will we respond?

The majority of our neighbors in need live from paycheck to paycheck. If one of them gets an illness like leukemia, it can take its toll on the finances until the cancer is in full remission. What a huge difference it makes when we are able to keep the electricity and gas from being turned off. When we can provide food, it's one less worry for a little while. These are ways that can help our neighbors in need to face each trying day until they are well again. Your prayers and donations make all this possible.

Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth

The Catholic Church has a well-documented tradition of Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth. We will feature resources intended to serve as an introduction on this issue. This is just one element of our Catholic teaching that highlights this tradition.

Charity in truth (Caritas in Veritate) Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, 2009

"The protection of the environment, of resources, and of the climate obliges all international leaders to act justly and to show a readiness to work in good faith, respecting the law, and promoting solidarity with the weakest regions of the planet." (No. 50)

God our Father, we give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old. We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocations; may they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family, and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own fathers around the world whose children are suffering or lost; may they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great-grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memories and nourish us with their love. Amen.

Don't forget Mass while on vacation...

Congratulations, in advance, for all of your upcoming out-of-town celebrations this summer.

Remember, as Catholics, we belong to more than just our parish; we are members of a universal Church. Therefore, we are never strangers when we meet with other Catholics to celebrate the great Mystery of our Faith, the Holy Mass.
