A Prayer Before Holy Mass

Heavenly Father: I, your unworthy servant, come to worship You in this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. By Your grace, kindly help me to listen attentively, pray devoutly, and receive worthily the Sacred Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. May Your Holy Spirit open the eyes of my heart to perceive more fully the great Mystery that takes place on the sacred altar. At this Holy Mass, I wish to pray in particular for the following intentions: (here name them). Amen.

"Then he asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'" Mark 4:40

Do we really trust God? Is God our first choice or last resort? Is our faith something we do only on Sunday or do we live the Gospel message every day of the week? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Let us start now to open our hearts to receive our Lord. Let us talk and listen to Him every day. Let us move our discipleship from head knowledge to heart knowledge.

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, the disciples are fearful of the violent storm. Jesus calms the wind and the sea and puts their fears to rest. Our neighbors in need find themselves riding a rough sea. Jesus helps us calm their fears through our gifts and words of inspiration. Thank you for always being there with your thoughtful prayers and love-filled donations.

Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth

The Catholic Church has a well-documented tradition of Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth. We will feature resources intended to serve as an introduction on this issue. This is just one element of our Catholic teaching that highlights this tradition.

Economic Justice for All, 1997 (No. 34), citing St. Cyprian

"From the patristic period to the present, the Church has affirmed that misuse of the world's resources or appropriation of them by a minority of the world's population betrays the gift of creation, since 'whatever belongs to God belongs to all.'"
