JUNE 26, 2022 THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Entrance Antiphon

Ps 47 (46): 2

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

Reading I

1 Kgs 19:16b, 19-21

The LORD said to Elijah: "You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you." Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he was following the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you." Elijah answered, "Go back! Have I done anything to you?" Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them; he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat. Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

R You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge; I say to the LORD, "My Lord are you. O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup, you it is who hold fast my lot."

R You are my inheritance, O Lord.

I bless the LORD who counsels me; even in the night my heart exhorts me. I set the LORD ever before me; with him at my right hand, I shall not be disturbed.

R You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

R You are my inheritance, O Lord.

You will show me the path to life, fullness of joys in your presence, the delights at your right hand forever.

R You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Reading II

Gal 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and sisters: For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery. For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another. I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

Gospel

Lk 9:51-62

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him. On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village. As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

"For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love." Galatians 5:13

We like to celebrate that we are free to "live the good life." We can do what we want, anytime we want, with no regard for laws. But, Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that, by imitating Jesus, we are freed from becoming slaves to our own self-interests and desires, so that we can serve one another. We are free to share our gifts and promote God's work on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

From St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel we see how Jesus, on his way to Jerusalem, sent "messengers ahead of Him." To be the messengers of God, we must know what it is God wants to say and do through us, as he sends us out to bring his love to others. Let us consider joining the St. Raphael members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. We need you! Call the parish office for more information.

First Grade Teacher Position

St. Raphael the Archangel School seeks a full-time, degreed, and certified First Grade teacher for the 2022-2023 school year. Applicants must be positive Christian role models and exhibit a love for teaching. Interested applicants, please send a cover letter and resumé, with references, to Julie Hayes at hayes@straphaelarchangel.org.

Applicants must also begin the Archdiocesan application process at www.archstl.org/education. Click on "View Application and Instructions."

Alpha

Do you desire to talk to others about what's really important in life and not just sports and the weather? Do you wish it were easier to talk to people about what you believe (and don't believe) about faith in God? Then come try an Alpha gathering! Our next session is Friday, July 1, in the parish office. We begin with dinner at 6:30pm, followed by a short video, and small group discussions on this month's topic, "Who is the Holy Spirit?" Dinner is free and child care is provided, so what do you have to lose?

New and Expectant Parent Network (N.E.X.T.)

The SRA New and Expectant Parent Network (N.E.X.T.) exists to support parents who are expecting or have recently given birth to or lost a child. We are always willing to accept new members and referrals or requests for our support. This includes meal delivery for about four to six weeks, prayers and any baby supplies needed for the family. We are also in contact with our sister parish, Most Holy Trinity to offer the same support to members in need at this parish as well. Thank you.

FIRST FRIDAY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

"Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of love."
Pope John Paul II

Please join us as we adore Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament on the first Friday of every month. Adoration starts after the 8:00am Mass from September to May and after 7:00am from June to August. Adoration will conclude at 2:15pm with Benediction. Come at any time to spend quiet, prayerful time with Jesus. You may also wish to bring your own Bible and prayer book. Just as you cannot be exposed to the sun without receiving its rays, neither can you come to Jesus exposed in the Blessed Sacrament without receiving the divine rays of His grace, love, and peace. For more information or to sign up for 30 – 60 minutes, (drop-ins are always welcome), please call Barbara Cramer at 314.406.8699.

A Prayer Before Holy Mass

Heavenly Father: I, your unworthy servant, come to worship You in this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. By Your grace, kindly help me to listen attentively, pray devoutly, and receive worthily the Sacred Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. May Your Holy Spirit open the eyes of my heart to perceive more fully the great Mystery that takes place on the sacred altar. At this Holy Mass, I wish to pray in particular for the following intentions: (here name them). Amen.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish of Saint Raphael the Archangel, celebrate Jesus as the center of our life. Through our active participation in the Eucharist, we strive to recognize Jesus in our daily lives and the lives of others. Our commitment is to grow as a parish family, and live this through our religious, educational, social, and civic involvements, witnessing to all, our faith in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Prayer 101

Coming in August...Prayer 101

I need help with my prayer life. Sometimes I don't know where to start or what to say to Jesus. Can I just talk to Jesus and keep it informal? How do I fit prayers into my busy life? All of these are comments or concerns we've thought of ourselves or heard. We will begin a workshop (open to all parishioners) to start August 10 and more details will follow. This workshop will be helpful to those who are looking to start, develop, or energize their prayer life. If you have any questions before we provide more details in future bulletins, please email Pam Hager at hager@straphaelarchangel.org. Thank you.

ST. RAPHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

It's Bible Time!

When: Wednesday, July 13th - 7PM

Where: Rectory - Raphael Room

Who: Adults with school-aged kids

What is the Bible...and what are we really supposed to do with it? We all approach the Bible in different ways, but the purpose of this group is for us to come together and examine, talk about, and hear the Bible in a way that many of us have not had a chance to do before. The Bible is INCREDIBLE (yes, really) and today, more than ever, there are endless resources to help us realize this. We will join together to engage with the Bible in a multi-format approach, including using professional videos and content created by The Bible Project and by jointly reading and listening to books and passages from the Bible.

Please contact Jordan Chitwood at jordan@butlerspantry.com or 660-888-2951 with questions or to RSVP. Interested, but can't make it in person? Please let us know and we can try to accommodate.

The conflict in Ukraine has displaced some 2.3 million refugees, mostly women and children, while many others have remained behind to defend their home. The St. Raphael Council of the Knights of Columbus will host a BBQ on the school parking lot on Sunday, June 26, 11:00am to 3:00pm, with all proceeds going directly to the Knights of Columbus councils in Ukraine and Poland. There are over 40,000 Knights in these countries that provide direct services to these refugees. The SRA Knights will be selling hotdogs, brats, hamburgers, chips, and soft drinks.

SCRIP - A percentage of the sale of gift cards goes back to the school. The next order is due Friday, July 1, and should be turned in to the parish office. Cards can be picked up at the parish office on Friday, July 8, between the hours of 7:30am and 12:00pm. Orders will be placed monthly during the year. Turn in order forms and checks (made out to SRA HSA) to the parish office. For a list of retailers, the web site is shopwithscrip.com.

Annual Catholic Appeal Reminder

If you have not yet made your Annual Catholic Appeal contribution/pledge, please do so now. You can return your pledge/contribution to the rectory or place it into the Sunday collection basket. Also, you can contribute directly to ACA by following the directions given in the Archbishop's letter. If you have any questions or need help, please contact Fred Hodes, Parish ACA chairperson, at 314.752.8742 or fhodes@msn.com.

Thanks to all who have been so generous to the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal.
