MARCH 27, 2022 FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

READINGS FOR MARCH 27, 2022 - FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Is 66: 10-11

Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. By joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast.

Reading I Jos 5:9a, 10-12

The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have removed the reproach of Egypt from you." While the Israelites were encamped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth of the month. On the day after the Passover, they ate of the produce of the land in the form of unleavened cakes and parched grain. On that same day after the Passover, on which they ate of the produce of the land, the manna ceased. No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall be ever in my mouth. Let my soul glory in the LORD; the lowly will hear me and be glad. R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Glorify the LORD with me; let us together extol his name. I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears. R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Look to him that you may be radiant with joy, and your faces may not blush with shame. When the poor one called out, the LORD heard, and from all his distress he saved him. R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Reading II 2 Cor 5:17-21

Brothers and sisters: Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come. And all this is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting their trespasses against them and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. So we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

Verse before the Gospel Lk 15:18

I will get up and go to my Father and shall say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.

Gospel Lk 15:1-3, 11-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them Jesus addressed this parable: "A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, 'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.' So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation. When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any. Coming to his senses he thought, 'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers." So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.' Then the celebration began. Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him. He said to his father in reply, 'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.' He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.""

No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." (JOSHUA 5:12)

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land, the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide all that we need.

From St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel, the Prodigal Son repents and finds mercy in the heart of his father. Know that your penance during Lent can give the poor the grace of finding the merciful heart of God the Father. In the last two months, through your gifts, the Society was able to assist 24 families, providing $350 in food vouchers, $1,988 for utilities, $2,445 for rent, and $250 for a bed, sofa, and table, as well as various toiletries and paper products. Thank you!

Balance by David Baranowski Director of Stewardship Education, Archdiocese of St. Louis

When you get an ear ache, you may feel off kilter or out-of-balance. When the tires on your car aren't properly inflated, you may experience a rough ride because your car is out-of-balance. When you spend more money than you have in your checking account, your account is overdrawn, and your finances are out-of-balance. When something is out-of-balance, it usually doesn't work right.

You exercise regularly and watch what you eat - you try to maintain your health. You are socially active, relatively free of worry; you buy some "creature comforts," and you try to maintain your happiness. Yet, in spite of your efforts to maintain health and happiness, you still feel that something is missing. You are out-of-balance; something isn't right.

Why? Because we are more than just our physical bodies and our possessions. We have souls. We have a supernatural, spiritual component to our entire being. Most of us neglect our holiness. We forget to feed our souls. We take our relationship with God for granted or worse, we don't think about it at all. We are out-of-balance.

Most people probably don't think of Lent as a gift. But, it is! It's our opportunity to put our lives back into balance – to recalibrate our holiness. Lent is our time to be more intentional with our prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. It is time to detach ourselves from worldly pleasures and develop our spiritual muscles. It is time to empty ourselves of our self-interests and allow room for the Holy Spirit to operate in our lives. How do we do this? By reducing "vice" and increasing "virtue." For each of the seven deadly sins (vices), there is a corresponding virtue to overcome them.

Chastity overcomes lust – our bodies are temples for the Holy Spirit. In our highly sexualized culture, let us develop chastity to overcome lustful desires and our wandering eyes.

Temperance overcomes gluttony – many people "give up" eating or drinking certain foods or beverages during Lent. Temperance or moderation helps control our appetites.

Charity overcomes greed – More things don't equate to more happiness. In fact, it's the opposite. The most joyful people are also the most generous. Charity exhibits selflessness; greed exhibits selfishness.

Diligence overcomes sloth – as stewards, we are called to nurture, develop, and share our gifts. Cultivate diligence or a strong work ethic to overcome laziness or sloth.

Patience overcomes wrath – St. James tells us to "be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath, for the wrath of man does not accomplish the righteousness of God." Do we want to develop patience? Let us start by praying for people that make us angry.

spite of your efforts to maintain health and hap-you still feel that something is missing. You are balance; something isn't right.

Why? Because we are more than just our physdies and our possessions. We have souls. We supernatural, spiritual component to our entire spite of your efforts to maintain health and hap-grateful for all the gifts they have been given. Kindness overcomes envy – good stewards are grateful for all the gifts they have been given. Kindness overcomes envy – good stewards are grateful for all the gifts they have been given. Kindness overcomes envy – good stewards are grateful for all the gifts they have been given. Kindness overcomes envy – good stewards are grateful for all the gifts they have been given. Kindness overcomes envy – good stewards are grateful for all the gifts they have been given. Kindness overcomes envy – good stewards are grateful for all the gifts they have been given. Kindness overcomes envy – good stewards are grateful for all the gifts they have been given. Kindness overcomes envy – good stewards are grateful for all the gifts they have been given.

Humility overcomes pride – this is the big one. Most of our sins are based in pride. Pride is called the "devil's sin" because Satan wanted to make himself a god before God. Humility is central to being a disciple of Jesus, putting God's will before our own self-interests.

We are made in God's image. We are sons and daughters of God. We are made to be in union with Him, not separated from Him.

Just like maintaining our health and happiness, holiness requires an intentional, daily commitment; it requires us to change. Let's use this Lent to get our lives back into balance – health, happiness, and holiness! Let's exercise virtue and eliminate vice. Let's experience the peace and joy that God desires for us here on earth.

The Young Catholic Musicians orchestra and choir are now holding auditions for new members, age 10 - 17. The YCM has two rehearsals a month and leads the music for Mass once a month. Auditions and rehearsals are held in Sts. Peter and Paul Church. For information, please visit youngcatholicmuscians.org.

SRA Lenten Project...Serving Those who Serve Us: School Sisters of Notre Dame (SSND)

Please consider donating a sheet of postage stamps for the Lenten Project. The stamps will be included in the care packages that our school children will be preparing for the School Sisters of Notre Dame who are in residence at the Mother House here in St. Louis. You may put the stamps in the collection basket or bring them to the parish office, whichever is more convenient. This is part of the Service Component of the Lenten Project...100 sheets of stamps are needed.

And we are still accepting donations for the Financial Component of the Lenten Project; there are envelopes in the church pews or you may donate online. Good news! We recently crossed over the $5,000 financial goal of this project!

Thank you.

From the Hip, Hip, Hooray Department

Congratulations to 2015 alum, Karisa Franz. The Virginia Tech junior swam the 100-yard butterfly in the D1 NCAA Championship, placing 32nd in the country. Karisa is the daughter of our famous lunch lady, Qi Franz, and a graduate of Cor Jesu Academy. Way to go, Karisa! Do you have alumni news to share? HSA Mission Statement

The primary purpose of the Home and School Association is to raise capital through volunteer efforts of school families, parishioners, and faculty and to safeguard and use those funds for the maximum benefit of the children attending St. Raphael the Archangel School. A secondary purpose of the HSA is to grow a sense of community among the families, parishioners, and faculty at SRA. This is achieved by promoting communication between home and school, supporting the faith development in the school, and providing information to aid in education and development of SRA students.

Are you interested in getting involved and helping the school community?

We are excited to accept nominations for the position of: Head Room Parent

We will also start recruiting for a Vice President this fall, with the term starting January 2023. You can learn more about the opportunities on the SRA website or by speaking with a current member of the HSA Board – link below. Please send your nominations to caseykleekamp@yahoo.com by April 11. The name will be drawn at the HSA Board Meeting on April 12. The Head Room Parent term begins in June.

All Things New/Disciple Maker Index

As of the writing of this article, we have 270 Disciple Maker Index surveys completed. This is an incredible number. But we know there are many people still who need to fill theirs out and the April 4 deadline is fast approaching. We hope in the next week to have many more!

The feedback of every adult in your household is important to St. Raphael Parish! High school students, your voice needs to be heard too!

Our parish goal this week is to reach 425 surveys! You can fill out the survey online. Scan the code or visit the SRA website: straphaelarchangel.org. The survey is front and center on the SRA page.

Paper copies of the survey are also available if you would prefer that method. Please contact the parish office if you would like to receive a paper copy.

Mass for the Anointing of the Sick

Next Saturday, we will celebrate a special Mass for the Anointing of the Sick. This Mass will be at 10:00am. All of those who would like to be anointed are welcome to attend. Due to how the Anointing is conducted, people will sit more socially distanced than normal.

If you would like me to visit your home to celebrate this Sacrament with you, please give me a call. I would be happy to do this.
