MAY 12, 2024 ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Fr. Molini's Notes

The Ascension of Our Lord

This opportunity to recall the Ascension of Jesus is a gift to the church community. Before leaving this earth, Jesus commands us to share in His ministry of evangelization. He sends out His Apostles to carry the message of hope and redemption to all nations, using Baptism as a sign of our commitment to share this message. We continue this ministry through our participation in sharing God's Word through the efforts of our lives. For, if we live as Jesus instructs, we will follow where He has gone. He isn't so much leaving the Church as blazing the trail. Our faith tells us that we too shall rise from death and join Christ body and soul forever in the Kingdom. The Ascension of Jesus is a pledge, a promise. As goes the Head, so the body will follow.

Let us rest secure in the knowledge of this journey to which we are called and live in such a manner that all can see and appreciate our trust in the Lord. May our lives be lessons in love, hope, and faith. May we evangelize in word and deed, to the glory of God.

Mother's Day

This beautiful month of May dedicated to our Blessed Mother is also the month of Mother's Day, a wonderful unity of purpose. On this special day, may all our mothers know our gratitude and love. Blessings to all the mothers of our parish. Be they with us still or with Christ in Heaven, may we take some time to offer thanks to God for their place in our lives. Happy Mother's Day!

Remember our Graduates

Let us pray for all those concluding their educational programs, whether elementary, secondary, or college. This can be a stressful time of year so let's remember to pray for them, and for a successful conclusion to their studies.

"We don't use the envelopes to donate to the parish."

Every now and then, the parish office gets a message like this from a family asking us to cancel the donation envelopes mailed out to parishioners. The problem is that often, there is no indication they have used any means to donate to the parish: no envelopes, no stock donations, no "once-a-year" gift, nothing, for years. I cannot express the dismay I feel when a family is willing to use our school, but not support the parish as well. It further emphasizes a societal inability to see the whole picture, focusing only on what affects "me" as an individual. As a Catholic parish, our view must be more broad and communal.

We have recently seen the closure of several Catholic schools in the area. Most had long-term concerns, ranging from low enrollment to rising costs associated with other issues. I guarantee, in addition, that part of the challenge facing those parishes was the disconnect between support for the school and parish. No parish school can survive on tuition payments alone. Every parishioner is asked to support the parish, whether a child is in school or not. If the parish is unable to maintain its fiscal health, the school will suffer. Continued on Page 5.

"Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God." – 1 John 4:15

How strong is your faith? When you have an opportunity to either defend or clarify a question about our Catholic faith, do you do it? Or, do you remain silent so that others don't think you are weird? Pray for the courage to be strong in all circumstances and to joyfully share your witness with others.

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, we are told that the disciples went forth and preached everywhere. As Jesus ascended into Heaven to sit at the right hand of Our Heavenly Father, they were given grace to spread His holy word. We should do likewise. Let us please pray for the Vincentians as they enter the homes of neighbors in need. May we always approach those suffering with humility, gentleness, patience, and love. May we listen without questioning and comfort those who reach out to us when they are feeling scared and abandoned.

Fr. Molini's Notes continued...

In addition, every parishioner assists the education of the parish children, since tuition does not cover the total cost to educate a child. Every child receives a "scholarship" in this way, offset through Sunday contributions.

This may be a good wake-up call for us all. Do I support the parish...by attending Sunday Mass, participating in our activities, and donating to the good of the whole parish?

Am I just interested in using the school for education, or do I support the entire ministry of our parish to foster a strong parish community that benefits the spiritual and communal integrity of our area? The school cannot survive on its own...and the parish needs the support of everyone.

Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth

The Catholic Church has a well-documented tradition of Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth. We will feature resources intended to serve as an introduction on this issue. This is just one element of our Catholic teaching that highlights this tradition. For the next several weeks, more articles on the care of our Earth will appear in this bulletin.

Audience with Representatives of the Churches and Ecclesial Communities and of the Different Religions
Pope Francis March, 2013

“The Church is likewise conscious of the responsibility which all of us have for our world, for the whole of creation, which we must love and protect. There is much that we can do to benefit the poor, the needy, and those who suffer, and to favor justice, promote reconciliation, and build peace.”

Blood Drive Thank You

Thank you to everyone who made the recent Impact Life Blood Drive sponsored by the Knights of Columbus a success. There were 29 units collected providing life changing possibilities for 87 people.

Volunteers were on hand to assist the Impact Life staff, so everything ran efficiently. We are grateful to them and especially grateful to the donors who took time to give one of the most precious gifts possible: their own blood. Blood cannot be manufactured; it is priceless to the one who needs it, yet it costs only an hour of valuable time. Like many gifts - it is better to give than to receive.

The next SRA drive is scheduled for this fall. See you there!

Thanks again! The Knights of Columbus, Council 14330
