Fr. Molini's Notes

Pentecost: Come Holy Spirit!

With the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, the early Church community began evangelizing the world. With the first proclamation to the crowd, St. Peter and the Apostles began a ministry of preaching and calling others into discipleship. That call resounds to this very day and invites us to consider our own calling as members of Christ's Body.

It is one thing to recognize our place in the Body of Christ, as a member of the Church. It is another step in discipleship to share the message of salvation through an active ministry of evangelization. The Church cannot advance in the world when its members are passive participants in society, living our own lives quietly while the culture rages on. As the Apostles demonstrate on Pentecost, we must confront the culture with confidence and compassion, determined in faith and unswerving in the truth. We need to be a voice of hope in a time of despair and uncertainty. Our prayers are a support when the world undercuts the foundations upon which we rely. Our worship of God in Jesus Christ offers a focus when our culture blurs so many lines of understanding. Our strong community offers a safe-home for those who find their relationships fractured or broken by the overwhelming individualization fostered in our culture.

Pentecost is our call to recognize our personal and communal responsibility to unity, faith, and holiness. Over this week consider how you can further the call to Christ in your own life, and then as a part of our community. Will you support the ministry of prayer, preaching, and providing so the parish will grow in the work of evangelization? Will Pentecost be a renewal of faith that benefits us all?

Congratulations to our Eighth Graders

This week will see the final class days for our Eighth Graders who are completing their course of study in our Elementary School. As we celebrate their time at St. Raphael, let us pray for their continued growth in wisdom, understanding, and faithfulness. We recognize their completion of study at the 9:00am Mass on Sunday, May 19.

Exterior Lighting Repairs

When a chain connected to the lantern hanging above the side entrance to the church broke, it became clear repairs were necessary. While the chain doesn't support the lantern, it became the impetus to examine the lantern...and what we found is concerning. All the glass panels are loose due to broken supports in the framework, and rust is beginning to affect other areas. Further inspection of the other exterior lights shows similar problems. Over the next month or so, all the lanterns will be removed for rehabilitation. They will be repaired and rewired so they will continue to provide decades of service. This is to give advance notice when you see them missing. They will be back good as new.

Memorial Day

Looking ahead, our Mass on Memorial Day, May 27, will be at 8:00am. The Mass at St. Gabriel will be at 9:00am. Please join us to pray, especially for those who gave their lives in service to our country. Please note: the parish office will be closed for Memorial Day, Monday, May 27.

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." - 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift to God in return. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God's plan to work, we all have to do what God is calling us to do.

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, Jesus greets His disciples with the words, "Peace be with you." And then He repeats, "Peace be with you." How beautiful to be at peace with oneself and with others! When we visit our neighbors in need, we try our very best to bring them the peace of Jesus and the material help they need to relieve the immediate stress in their lives. Thank you for your prayers and donations to assist us.

We would like to welcome Alison and Oliver Muenz-Winkler to our church.

We hope you know that we are here for you. There are several committees and clubs that you might like to join where you can meet other parishioners. As a faith community, we like to help others in our area and those less fortunate than we are. Please join us at Mass, and we hope you will consider joining us in future church activities. Again, welcome to St. Raphael the Archangel Parish; happy to have you join us.

Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth

The Catholic Church has a well-documented tradition of Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth. We will feature resources intended to serve as an introduction on this issue. This is just one element of our Catholic teaching that highlights this tradition.

The Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, 2005 (No. 466)

“Care for the environment represents a challenge for all of humanity. It is a matter of a common and universal duty, that of respecting a common good, destined for all, by preventing any one from using ‘with impunity the different categories of beings, whether living or inanimate - animals, plants, the natural elements - simply as one wishes, according to one’s own economic needs.’ It is a responsibility that must mature on the basis of the global dimension of the present ecological crisis and the consequent necessity to meet it on a worldwide level, since all beings are interdependent in the universal order established by the Creation. ‘One must take into account the nature of each being and of its mutual connection in an ordered system, which is precisely the cosmos.’”

Prayer Service For Peace

Please mark your calendar for Monday, June 3rd . We are offering a prayer service at 7:00pm at St. Raphael the Archangel Church to pray for peace. The service will last about an hour. We will have music, scripture readings, a meditation presented by Deacon Bob Leake, intercessions for ourselves, our families, our neighborhood, our city, our nation, our world and your intentions. We will conclude with the recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet. Please bring your rosary, your family and your friends. We'd love to see you.

Break A Leg, Ray!
